ABOUT FSSM

Idea of forming an association among forensic science practitioners was mooted many years ago between officers from agencies involved in forensic investigation, examination and education.

The idea eventually took on a more serious note in 2006 when a 'revival' of ideas and plans were initiated mainly among officers of the Department of Chemistry Malaysia, the Malaysian Royal Police Force, School of Health Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Forensic pathology Division of Hospital Kuala Lumpur and several others.

Subsequently a pro tem Committee was set up to take responsibility of getting the documents ready for submission to the Registrar of Society (ROS). After much hard work by the pro tem Committee, an inaugural meeting was held and subsequently documents were submitted to the ROS and on 8th May 2008, the Forensic Science Society of Malaysia became a fully registered society. At present, the society has a total of 291 registered members.

The Society was set up as a non profit organization with the following objectives:

- To advance the study and application of forensic sciences;
- To facilitate co-operation among persons who are, or have been, occupationally involved in forensic activities;
- To organise meetings, seminars, lectures, discussions; and
- To promote the activities of the society.

ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

Welcome to the National Forensic Science Symposium (NFSS) 2019 organised by the Forensic Science Society of Malaysia (FSSM) as a part of our effort to provide a platform for disseminating information on current development and strengthening networking among peers and members.

We are delighted to host this event as a spark to gather professionals, researchers and academicians for a mutual exchange of insights, views and experiences on current and future developments in the area of forensic sciences in the age of disruption.

NFSS 2019 will be held on 25th July 2019 with the theme "Advancing Forensic Sciences". This symposium includes plenary and concurrent scientific sessions by oral presenters, as well as the poster presenters to share information about research and development, education and other updates.

We look forward to meeting you at NFSS 2019.
